

Sebastian Faulks CBE to speak at Annual General Meeting

Tuesday, 25th September 2007
5.30pm for 6pm

The Tavistock and Portman NHS Foundation Trust are delighted to welcome the international best selling novelist Sebastian Faulks to their Annual General Meeting on September 25th. Author of Birdsong, Charlotte Grey, Engleby, and currently working on the latest James Bond novel, 'Devil May Care', to be published in May 2008, Sebastian Faulks will give a short talk focussing on his work to date.

The AGM will be an open meeting. Public, patients, carers, and local residents are welcome to attend. There will also be an opportunity to hear about the work of the Trust.

The meeting starts at 5.30 for 6pm in the Lecture Theatre at the Tavistock Centre. Refreshments will be served.
